UMD African American Landmark Self-Guided Tour

All Day

University of Maryland Campus

Learn about the legacy and footprint left by African Americans at the University of Maryland and beyond by virtually touring historical landmarks and learning about their significance. Learn more and take the tour here.

Park Run - Community 5K

9:00 AM

Paint Branch Trail at Acredale Park, near the north end of campus

This free, fun, and friendly weekly event is a great way for students to step outside the UMD campus and get to know College Park's beautiful trails and vibrant community. Walk, jog, or run: all welcome. Registration for a free, personal barcode is your ticket to events year-round, and to other events in DC and around the world - registration is fast and highly recommended, but not required for participation. Late August can be hot - hydrate well!

Bend & Bagels

10:00 AM - 11:30 AM

Orem Alumni Hall, Samuel Riggs IV Alumni Center

Presented by the University of Maryland Alumni Association and the Student Alumni Leadership Council (SALC)

Join us for a 45-minute barre class led by UMD alumna Lauren Filocco '12 to kickstart your weekend on campus! Lauren owns OpenBarre, an independent boutique fitness studio specializing in barre and stretch classes in downtown College Park. Lauren graduated from the Robert H. Smith School of Business with a degree in Supply Chain Management & Operations Management and was involved with the QUEST Honors Program and Scholars Public Leadership program on campus.

As a Terp alumna, Lauren is excited to welcome all new Terps to campus. Participants can take advantage of a six-week intro at OpenBarre following this class! The first 50 students will also receive a clear Terps stadium bag, perfect to bring to your first home football game.

Note: please bring your own mat or towel, otherwise no additional equipment will be needed!
